Council by unanimous vote Thursday afternoon authorized issuance of $400,000 in scrip to meet November pay rolls for 4,000 city employes, and at the same session ordered sale of $87 500 worth of 1932 tax fi. fas., the first of the 1932 issue to be sold.

Although the call for the session was limited to consideration of the two items by Acting Mayor J. Charlie Murphy, the council spent nearly an hour and a half in a debate over whether December salaries should be included in the first issue.

Councilman John A. White, of the fourth ward, fought to include another $400,000 for December salaries, but after an appeal by Murphy withdrew an amendment, saying he would offer it at Monday's regular council Singe the turkey, dress it, then wash and wipe with a damp cloth. Cut off neck close to the body, first slipping back the skin; this will help to keep in the stuffing. Rub well with salt; fill the turkey with cornbread stuffing; tie wings and legs close to the body. Rub the outside with one-fourth cup of soft butter and two teaspoonfuls of honey, mixed. and two teaspoolities of none, mixed.

Place in roasting pan (do not cover) and arrange in cold oven. Set temperature control 300 degrees and bake, allowing 30 minutes to the pound.
Cook the neck, wing tips, liver and gizzard in water to cover; use this to moisten the dressing and giblet gravy. To make gravy use fat in pan after turkey is cooked, flour, broth, giblet and two eggs hard cooked, seaon with salt, pepper and worcester-shire sauce. If the turkey weighs over 12 pounds use 275 degrees and time 25 minutes to the pound. Spiced Crapberry Sauce.

Different Recipes for Christmas.

This year, with the depression of the last two years barely behind us, the Christmas menu will be a matter of individual arrangement according to income. As our Christmas and Thanksgiving menus are often very similar your Christmas dinner may include turkey, cranberries, cauliflower or celery, stuffing, a salad, pumpkin pie and coffee, and as much or as little else as desired. With this pattern in mind, the homemaker may make up her own menu according to her income.

A breast of veal, neatly stuffed with highly seasoned stuffing, makes a good alternative when turkey or chicken is not available. Cabbage in various forms is a good runner up for the vegetable, representing as it does a typical fall food. If pumpkin or squash pie does not fill the bill, then try a sweet potato pie.

The following recipes represent variety, unusualness and economy. Take One quart sweet cider, 1 quart grape juice, sugar to taste; 14 cup finely choice, and have a happy Christ-is 4 parts ice to 1 part salt. This recipe makes enough sherbet to serve 20 portions in small sherbet cups. Christmas Cabbage Salad.

One medium-sized crisp cabbage, 2 large green sweet peppers, salad dressing, 1 bunch celery, 1 cup salted peanuts.

Chop all vegetables fine, halve the peanuts. Mix together, moisten with any desired kind of salad dressing. A sour cream dressing made at home is the very best kind. Serve over an individual portion of jellied lime gelatin dessert. Make this lime jelly in a shallow square or oblong pan, and cut it in squares. Place the squares of lime jelly on individual salad plates on bed of shredded lettuce, place portion of cabbage salad over the jelly. This is most attractive.

When done, turn out on a plate and serve hot.

Oyster Omelet.

Melt 6 tablespoons butter in an omelet pan over slow fire. Add, mixed together, 6 beaten egg yolks, 1 cup mik, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, and 1 large cup oysters measured after cleaning and cutting in quarters. Add 2 teaspoons butter. Last of all, fold in the stiffly-beaten egg whites of the 6 eggs. Get the butter in the pan very hot, pour in the mixture. As the omelet sets around the edges, use the flat flexible blade of a spatula to lift the omelet so that the butter may flow freely under it. When center is set and bottom delicately browned, fold the omelet over as usual and turn onto a plate in a serve hot.

Cranberry Fritters.

BUY G.P.A. ANTI-FREEZE NOW!

It can't be long now. A real, old-fashioned cold wave may be here any day.

So put G. P. A. Radiator Glycerine in NOW and KNOW you're safe against costly freeze-ups. One filling of G.P.A. lasts all winter. It won't evaporate or fade away, even on the warmest days.

Also, the new G. P. A. leaks less than water; will "stay put" in any cooling system that is water-tight. And it actually stops the rusting and corrosion caused by ordinary tap water. In addition, G.P.A. retards the disintegration of rubber hose.

Has no dangerous or unpleasant fumes. Won't injure Duco. Won't clog or

In short, G. P. A. is the modern, the safe anti-freeze. And it is the best bargain in town. Prices have been greatly reduced. This permanent, all-season antifreeze now costs but little more than you would pay for one filling of the "fadeaway" kind.

Don't delay. Any of the dealers below will give you prompt G.P.A. service TODAY.

THE NEW G.P.A.

- ★ Won't evaporate (one filling lasts all winter)
- ★ Leaks less than water
- ★ Won't clog the cooling system
- * Stops radiator rusting Is lower in price

6. Positively will not clog or gum radiator. Mixes quickly and permanently with water.

- 8. Never overheats motor.
- 9. Does not injure Duco or other finishes.
- 10. No unpleasant or dangerous fumes.
- 11. Safe-non-poisonous, non-inflammable. 12. Permits more efficient operating temperatures.
- 13. Uniform in quality. Made to G.P.A. standards.
- 14. Lower in price. More economical than ever.

Why you should fill with G. P. A. NOW:

Since G. P. A. will not evaporate you can safely put it in now. Thus you avoid the last minute rush and all danger of

"We are all interested in we eace, in disarmament, in the tion of economic conditions and the betterment of trade, in improving unemployment. The Russian question involves all these matters."

Borah constantly argues that the United States hurts itself in refusing diplomatic relationship to the soviets, He developed this idea today.
"The establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and the soviet government involves many important propositions," he said.

Exactly two years to the day from the time he was injured by a street car, George B. Gillespie, southeastern district manager of Chrysler Motors Corporation, of 2788 Peachtree road, was awarded a verdict for $21,150 against the Georgia Power Company.

The verdict was returned by a jury before Judge E. E. Pomeroy in Fulton superior court Thursday afternoon after hearing testimony for several days concerning an accident on December 15, 1930, in which Mr. Gillespie was struck by a street car and lost his right leg. The original suit was for $50,000 damages, and the plaintiff was represented by the law firm of White, Poole, Pearce & Gershon.

Grandma Treated Yours

When you were a child, grandma drove out your cold with mutton suet. It was her old stand-by. Today, however, modern science has added to mutton suet, menthol, thymol, camphor and other effective cold-breaking medication to give you Penetro, the most effective cold salve ever developed. Mothers prefer Penetro, not only for the quick relief it brings, but also because it is so clean and easy to use, does not stain night clothes or bed coverings.

The Scottsboro case referred to by Skelton was one in which the supreme court ordered new trials for several negroes charged with attacking white girls, at whose trial Alabama national guardsmen were called out for prothe ice. In Chicago several were dead, frozen for want of shelter.

Residents of Albin, Wyo., had to hall water in tubs and barrels from railroad tanks after the village supply tank froze at 32 below.
Over Oklahoma and as far south as the Red river a big snow fell, rather a curiosity in that region. Seven inches lay over the Panhandle tip. Most aviation schedules were abandoned in the Oklahoma City air line route.

burgh September 7, 1930, only a few days after he escaped from Troup county, and has lived in that vicinity since. He worked on a Newark newspaper until it stopped publication.

Then he found a variety of other jobs, among them that of a dynamiter at a copper refinery in Chrome, N. J. After that, he decided to write his experiences and the book and motion picture dealing with the Georgia prison system followed.

Now he operates a small store in East Orange, and before his arrest was a familiar figure in downtown Newark where he was taken into ustody.

Interviewed by a Newark newspaper

Interviewed by a Newark newspaper only last Sunday, he expressed hope of obtaining a pardon.

"Fugitive" an Empty Honor.

"I wish to be a free man once more," he was quoted as saying, "and be able to hold my head high in any part of the United States. I'm still a 'fugitive from a Georgia chain a fugitive from a Georgia chain gang' but, believe me, it's an empty honor."

He recited his experiences to the reporter, retelling many of the inci-dents he had written, but he said the most dramatic moment in his life was meeting another escaped convict in Newark April 1, 1931.

The other fugitive was John Moore, who with Burns and a third man, held up the grocery in Atlanta in 1921. Burns was arrested early this morning soon after his brother, the Rev. Vincent G. Burns, of Palisades, had pleaded against the convict-au-thor's arrest at Newark police headthor's arrest at Newark police headquarters.

The clergyman told Police Lieutenant White he had heard Newark police were seeking his brother. White told him the fugitive had better surrender and seek a pardon. The clergyman then left headquarters, and he was followed by a detective. A few steps from police headquarters, the clergyman recounted his interview to his brother. The detective stepped up and arrested Robert Burns.

Burns had made no apparent effort to hide in Newark, and although wanted by Georgia, had been in New Jersey for nearly two years. Police here declined to say whether they had received a request for Burns' arrest.
All they would show to newspaperinen was a page torn from a magazine containing a picture of Burns. Over the picture were the words "I am a fugitive." This, police said, had been received in an envelope from Georgia.

To the best of our knowledge the BLUE BOAR CAFETERIA is the only one in Atlanta headed by a trained dietitian who has made a study of just what foods build up the body in a way to enable you to resist the flu . . . We're not "health cranks" here at the Blue Boar, but we do have a food knowledge gained at such scientific centers as the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota, the Battle Creek Sanitarium in Michigan, and Johns Hopkins in Maryland. Cost more to eat the right food? Not at all. Does it mean you have to eat a lot of "tasteless" food? No, siree! ## Chest Christmas Clearing House Contacts Public With Agencies fare Society, who would give Mr. X to your needs.

BY EDNA LEE.

Many Atlantans seem to think that the Christmas clearing house of the Community Chest dispenses aid to needy families. Proof of this is the number of telephone calls daily asking aid for needy families.

This is a wistaken idea. The Christmas clearing house neither gives nor receives aid. It is no more or less than the "contact point" between the public and the various splendld relief organizations in Atlanta. It has neither the facilities or the funds to dispense aid.

Here is a concrete example of what the clearing house can, and does do gladly. Suppose Mr. X called and explained that he would like to give some worthy family their Christmas cher. The clearing house would put Mr. X in touch with the Family Welfare Society, who would give Mr. X the name of one of the many families on their list!

If, on the other hand, Mr. X had found a family that he wished to help but wanted to be sure they were not already receiving aid from an agency, he would call the clearing house. By consulting their files they could tell Mr. X whether or not the family was listed with any Atlanta agency.

But if Mr. X whether or not the family was listed with any Atlanta agency.

But if Mr. X whether or not the family was listed with any Atlanta agency.

But if Mr. X wants to solicit aid for a needy family he solicits if the mam of one of the many families.

If, on the other hand, Mr. X had found a family that he wished to help but wanted to be sure they were not already receiving aid from an agency, he would call the clearing house. By consulting their files they could tell Mr. X whether or not the family was listed with any Atlanta agency.

But if Mr. X whether or not the family was listed with any Atlanta agency.

All in all, the Christmas clearing house plays the part your telephone the family.

All in all, the Christmas clearing house plays the part your telephone prentor plays who says. "Number, please," and connects you with the party you want.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

The Rare Grand Coup

Most well-played hands are a result of overbidding. If a hand has been bid quite conservatively and properly, it is usually easy to play, and, in those cases where problems are presented, the Declarer's course is almost always clear. The good player occasionally indulges in overbidding, because of his confidence that his ability in the play of the hand will surmount all reasonable obstacles.

In the recent Vanderbilt Cup Contest, Mr. Barth re-entered the Dummy with the spade King and them led the Ace and another club, ruffing in his own hand. Next he played the Queen and another diamond, winning with the King in Dummy, and another low club allowed him to shorten himself once more. He now cashed the Ace of spades and led his last diamond over to the Ace. Having previously discarded his fourth spade on the club Ace, he now had left in his hand nothing but the Ace-Ten of hearts. Holding a perfect tenace over East, he now led the club in safety.

Tomorrow's Hand.

The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow's hearts where they logically should have only bid six. The Grand 3-2 break in trumps, and consequently was far from being a 2-to-1 chances under the Ace and another club, ruffing in his own hand. Next he played the Queen and another diamond, winning with the spade King and then led the Ace and another club, ruffing in his own hand. Next he played the Queen and another diamond, winning with the King in Dummy, and another diamond, winning with the King in Dummy, and another diamond, winning with the Spade King and then led the Ace and another club, ruffing in his own hand. Slam was dependent on a finesse and a 3-2 break in trumps, and consequently was far from being a 2-to-1 chance under the old scoring. The finesse was successful, but the trumps did not break, whereupon Mr. Barth proceeded to prove his skill as a player by executing that very rare play. the Grand Coup.

Mr. Barth was lucky in receiving a spade Opening on the hand, although he could have taken the finesse himself later. West's Opening cannot be particularly criticized, as the opponents had bid every suit. The first trick, therefore, was won with the spade Knave and two rounds of heart's taken. DENVER, Col., Dec. 15.—(UP)— Frederick G. Bontils, millionaire publisher of the Denver Post, was adjudged guilty of contempt of court and fined $25 by District Judge E. V.
Holland late today. His attorney,
Philip Hornbein, served notice of appeal to the state supreme court.
Conviction of Bontils came two hours after Charles E. Lounsbury, editor of the Rocky Mountain News, and Philip S. Van Cise, his attorney, were freed by Judge Holland of contempt charges.

Judge Holland held that Bontils was only technically guilty of contempt when he retired from a deposition hearing in his $200,000 libel suit against the News.

ANSWER:

This is a question that has been asked for hundreds of years. Sappho, the Greek poetess, said "Youth cannot mate with crabbed age." True, but what is crabbed age? Today, with the comparatively new science of psychology on every tongue, a science which teaches that the mind is the fountain of perennial youth, the fountain which the deluded Ponce de Leon sought in vain, there is no reason why any man in his thirties should be thought to be approaching that dead line we call crabbed age.

All things being equal, the ideal mating is between men and women whose ages are more nearly the same, with an excess of years in the case of the man not necessarily disturbing the balance that marriage demands. But how many ideal matings are there? Some of the happiest marriages in the world are between men and women who are separated by a big gulf of years. Far be it from me to tell any girl not to marry a man to tell any girl not to marry a man 16 years her senior. For the present there need be no inequality as a re-sult of this difference and for the fu-

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

I have had a beau for a long time and he has often said that he hated girls who ran after him. We have had a quarrel which didn't amount to much at the time, as far as I was concerned, but he took it hard and I haven't seen him since. I want to patch things up but I am afraid to make the first move. Could you suggest any way to get in touch with gest any way to get in touch with him without letting him know that I was making the first move? What about inviting him to a meeting of a club that I am entertaining soon? HOPEFUL

ANSWER:

It's all right to invite him to the club meeting but be careful how you treat him when he comes. Don't let him see the greedy light in your eyes. Greediness is always repulsive, whether it be for food or love or money. A girl that has had the threat of losing her best beau is more than apt to try to gobble him up greedily when she once gets him back within reach. No man ever resents being treated with warm friendliness by a girl, but most men resent being clutched at.

SHOULD CHILDREN TAKE TEA

Here is a letter from a girl probably.
12 or 13 years old but with the mentality of one 16 or 18. At least she writes a perfect letter, and I believe it requires an I. Q. better than the average to do that.

My Dear Dr. Brady: Our class had a discussion on the subject of tea and coffee. Our teacher tried to convince us that we should not drink it, but I think she failed.

Would you kindly give your reasons for not wanting children to drink tea or coffee?

The children in our class are between the ages of 12 and 13, and some of them drink it at breakfast time.

and some of them drink it at breakfast time.

If you will prove to them that it is not good for their health I will be very grateful.

Very truly yours,

A cup of coffee contains a fair medicinal dose of caffeine, an alkaloid of the same class as strychnine morphine, atrophine, etc., though caffeine is comparatively nonpoisonous. The purpose for which physicians administer the drug caffeine by mouth or by hypodermic injection is stimulaion. It stimulates the heart; it stimulates the cerebrum; it stimulates the spinal cord; it stimulates the kidneys. A cup of tea contains a small dose a similar alkaloid called theine, nough theine is not used in medicine, its effects are similar in all respects those of caffeine, tea being some nat milder than coffee. It is conceivable in certain circumstances these beverages or drugs might be beneficial for a child, but that would be a matter for the phy-sician to decide. Certainly the effects of tea or coffee are not desirable for the normal, healthy child. That is why we think children under 16 years children must have a beverage other than water, soup, milk or any fresh fruit juice in season, cocoa or chocolate is less injurious to them than is tea or coffee. But when a child is given cocoa or chocolate as a now has with Belgium, Poland, beverage the greater the amount of Czecho - Slovakia, Rumania and milk or cream and the less chocolate or cocoa in the drink the better for Ing of raw and untreated sewage into streams around the city have been growing worse for years, and been growing worse for years, and be what France conceived to be threats by Mussolini directed against her chocolate or cocoa the neurotically by Mussolini directed against her chocolate or cocoa the neurotically by Mussolini directed against her chocolate or cocoa the neurotically by Mussolini directed against her chocolate or cocoa the neurotically by Mussolini directed against her chocolate or cocoa the neurotically by Mussolini directed against her chocolate or cocoa the drink the other for chealth. ### FOR THE GIRLS BACK HOME.

There is a great disposition on the part of the boys to save their money until they get to Panama on the return home.

This is a football team which seems to be very much in love with various young ladies back home. There is a violent argument going on now as to what one of those Chinese dressing gowns may be purchased for. And unless one young man can swing a loan I am afraid that there will be one young lady without a robe. He tried valiantly. There was a punchboard at one stop on the way out on which money could be won. And he tried but lost.

There is a rush for the mail box every morning. And when there are no letters in feminine handwriting and Atlanta post-marks there is a great deal of sadness to be seen.

It would be a great favor to your correspondent if the young ladies expecting Christmas presents from the boys will write and discourage them in the purchase of monkeys at Panama. From some source they learned that small monkeys could be purchased at a small price. And it looks as if we shall have at least four or five of them on the way back.

Somehow, the thought of coming back with a shipload of monkeys is very, very strenuous. I hope the idea will be dis-

Where Los Angeles writers were careful to point out that their teams, which lost to southern teams, were either not trying or were not in the best of condition, the San Francisco writers have been fine and generous in their estimates and comments.

Bill Ingram, California's splendid coach, rates southern football on a par with that in any other section.

Boss, a youngster of 24, who was a football, baseball and track athlete at Louisiana Tech, was bought by Washington in 1928 from Little Rock, He since has played with various Washington farms. He batted 338 for Chattanooga, making 206 hits, many for extra bases, and driving in 97 runs.

Russell, formerly with the Red Sox, has turned in five or six victories over the Senators each year.

Connaiser, whom the Indians purchased from New Orleans a year ago, is expected to be sent to Chattanooga to replace Boss.

Following is a summary of the players obtained by the various big league clubs in this week's precedented swapping:

'CHAIN STORE'

Effort to Block Action of Majors.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(P)—Long-standing differences between Baseball Commissioner Landis and major league club owners over the merits or operations of the so-called "chain store" systems were abruptly terminated today by legislation adopted by the joint meeting of National and American league magnates. the joint meeting of Nat American league magnates.

In effect the club owners removed any legal weapons Commissioner Landis possessed for use in combatting the development of "chain store" baseball and put their stamp of approval on the systems now most conspicuously identified with the New Yok Yankees and St. Louir Cardinals but involving most of thege ubs of the two major leagues.

two major leagues.

The new baseball law, adopted to day by unanimous agreement of the magnates without any consequent chance for Landis to express his opinion or object, reads as follows: THE ONLY CURB.

"All assaignments, whether optional or otherwise, of players' contracts and all agreements or other transactions involving players contracts mentioned in or provided for by the major league rules shall be given, and shall have, the same force and effect for all and every purpose notwithstand. all and every purpose notwithstanding the stock ownership or control either cirectly or indirectly by any one club or by a stockholder or stock holders of any one club in or of one or more other clubs."

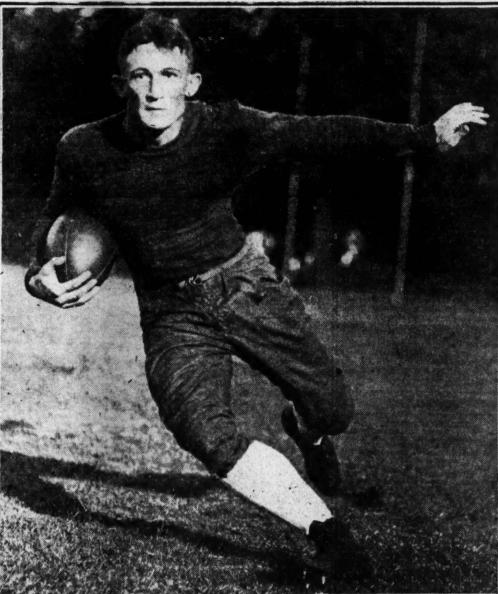

The only curb to the "chain-store" system, otherwise, is a rule that no major league club can hold stock or have control, directly or indirectly, in more than one club of the same league. Conditions have altered the situation concerning player transfers with-in a "chain-store" system, which drew the opposition and occasionally the in-terference of Landis. The system now is generally regarded as one of the "life-savers" of minor league baseball, as well as an economic necessity for the big league clubs.

SOURCES OF DISPUTE.

Salary claims by big league players, out under option to minor league clubs, have been one of the previous sources of dispute, but this also is covered by new legislation, providing that no player out on option shall be entitled to receive salary after the entitled to receive salary after the close of the league season in which he participated. regardless of whether the major league season is completed. The magnates otherwise closed their sessions by adopting a policy of "home rule" for all clubs on broadcasting of regular season ball games, likewise left the arrangement of special double-headers up to the clubs involved and approved advancement of the "deadline" from June 15 to May 15 for cutting down to the player limit of 23.

The magnates took no formal action on the radio issue, desnite share at

Rodgers Teaches Engel JACKET SQUAD With Tom Loughran How To Eat Raw Steaks

Rawmeat" Bill Says Chattanooga Chieftain Will Be Hard To Handle Next Season.

By Jimmy Jones.

A hard winter is coming on and word comes in from Texas that Engineers Drilled on "Rawmeat Bill" Rodgers, baseball's well-known carnivorous gentleman, is Bill, you know, is the fellow who likes his meat strictly in the raw-in fact it is his opinion that cooking meat is the best way in the world to spoil it.

The raw meat king showed up at the Columbus baseball meeting with his pockets stuffed with stripes of dried, salty venison. Bill had been hunting and just before he left for the meeting he told his good wife to pack up a little of the dried venison and he would take it along to his friends.

In the lobby of the Deshler-Wallick hotel, at Columbus, there were a few finicky men who did not care for raw meat. They were plainly horror-stricken to see Bill Rodgers circulating around, calmly munching a venison and rive in sorting and offering his comrades a nibble.

PASSED IT ALONG.

Bert Niehoff, the manager at Chattanooga, who is just getting used to a raw meat diet, was presented with several strings of the stuff and ate a few bites of it. He passed some of it along to the newspaperinen there and you should have seen their faces pucker up when they clamped down on the tough strips.

Dried venison was the old diet of the Indians when they were on the warpath. They filled a pouch with the strips and carried it along with them.

As far as the writer is concerned, there is not the slightest difference the strips and the strips and that sound on some of the handbills that Joe gets out in ballyhooing this baseball team during the summer.

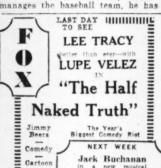

When Engel gets back to Chattanooga he is going to be a raw meat eater, too," Rodge.s declared.

That would be funny—"Engel, the wild man of Lookout mountain, now lives solely on raw meat diet." How would that sound on some of the handbills that Joe gets out in ballyhooing this baseball team during the summer.

We are afraid that Bert Niehoff, Joe's lieutenant, will never be a first-

SCHALDACH.

Passers are Schaldach. Valianos and Williams, chiefly. The fullback might but rarely. The first two fullbacks might but rarely. The first two fullbacks all carriers—Schaldash is best of all on off-tackle; Valianos has his gight he can make an off-tackle play go like no one else. Williams is a gight he can make an off-tackle play go like no one else. Williams is a ricky runner, small and light, but with a deceptive change of pace. He scored against Washington on a 47-yard run, tackled four or five times, but spun out of all tackles. Ernie Shamlin, 150-pounder, is a fourth ball-carrier who may see action. The left Robert Montgomery and Tallulah Bankhead appear to the finest advantage of their careers in the leading roles of "Faithless," the new and appealing type of drama from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio, which opens the Atlanta run at Loew's New Grand theater today. This is an exclusive run picture, never to be shown in any other Atlanta theater.

Montgomery plays a delightful character, a clean cut, hard working young son of position, been the leading ball carriers this year and, with Gus Cas-tro, the leading scorers of the team. The first backfield is light and short The first backfield is light and short in stature: Joe Verducci, crarter, 165 pounds; Hank Schaldach, left half, 170 pounds; Gus Gastro, right half-back, 185 pounds; Milo Quisling, full-back, 178 pounds.

"Heights are, Verducci, 5 feet 8 inches; Schaldach, 5 feet 8 inches; Castes, 6 feet and Ovisible, 5 feet 8

Alabama's victory over St. Mary's lit the fuse again to the old southfar west football rivalry which is now on the verge of breaking out again.

So far the south has carried a distinct edge in these intersectional with Alabama's Crimson Tide leading the charge. Southern California's victory over Tulane was practically the only major triumph or the Pacific coast over Dixie for some years.

Relief Bills Await Roosevelt Signature

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 15.—(A)— New York city's financial relief bills needed only the signature of Gover-nor Roosevelt tonight to make them law and enable the city's fathers to reduce its expenses.

The legislature, in addition to repealing salary mandates, authorized a commission to study charter reforms for New York. GOV. CONNER HALTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 .- (A)-Except for continued weakness in French and Belgian government bonds, the long-awaited December 15 passed without a ripple on financial sur-plished by a simple earmarking arplished by a simple earmarking arrangement at the Federal Reserve bank. Absence of France's check failed to ruffle Wall street.

Loans of the two most prominent non-payers had to take a rather severe buffeting at times; the French 7 1-2s, for example, had an extreme loss of 4 points, while Belgium's dollar listings looked almost as weak. French francs, on the other hand, steadied and the pound sterling reached $3.30.

was fairly firm until early afternoon when a gentle downward motion developed, leaving an assortment of generally modest net losses.

United States Steel preferred was off 3 points at the worst. Common lost 1 5-8.

Case, and a few senior issues yielded a point or thereabouts. The rank and file showed narrow changes. Oils tended lower and coppers were lustreless. Sales totaled 1.178.692 shares. Christmas business promises in Christmas business promises in many localities to be smaller than a year ago. Now York department stores are said to be running substantially under 1931 volume.

To the Holders of External Dollar Bonds of the Republic of Colombia DEPARTMENTS AND MUNICIPALITIES

The gratifying response to the first announcement of this Committee from 30 States and Canada indicates a demand on the part of the bondholders that action be taken for the protection of their interests. In order to meet these numerous demands and further facilitate the deposit of bonds, additional Depositaries have been named as listed below.

Statements being circulated by those who counsel delay and a do-nothing policy, or who are trading in the bonds, are misleading and detrimental to the interests of the bondholders.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Stocks closed slightly under the previous final figures today but the loss was not sufficient to cause revision of the optimistic views entertained for se-optimistic views entertained for se-curity values. Some talk was heard that steel operations probably would be down to 12 per cent this month, three per cent under the current rate of operations in the industry.

cent under the current rate of opera-tions in the industry.

The fact that selling U. S. Steel common and preferred accompanied this bearish talk caused some signifi-cance to be attached to the stories. The Street, however, lost sight of the predictions being made by people in the steel industry that operations would rise to at least 19 per cent in in the steel industry that operations would rise to at least 19 per cent in

The heaviness of steel preferred The heaviness of steel preferred again revived discussion of stability of the present dividend, but this is losing its unfavorable influence as many believe even a reduction has been more than discounted and should not be the cause of a sharp break in the price of the stock since dividends. not be the cause of a sharp break in the price of the stock, since dividends on the preferred are cumulative.

One of the most encouraging developments in recent weeks was the appearance of a good demand for bank stocks at advancing prices.

The buying of these issues was reported to be for important banking interests and was said to reflect the changed attitude on the part of financiers toward the securities markets.

Important people say liquidation has been completed and accounts for the fact that it is more difficult to purchase than to sell.

This coincides with the view expressed by Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, who in his annual report states that "exhaustion of liquidation and the gradual beginning of tion and the gradual beginning of fundamental economic improvement, it may be, have not yet adequately im-pressed the public."

Giant Octopus Seen In Hawaiian Waters HONOLULU. Dec. 15.—(P)—
Reports a giant octopus with tentacles 20 feet long and a head three times the size of a man's had been seen dragging itself along the rocks close to shore caused fishermen on Mani island to cast their nets with caution today.

Maui island to cast their nets with caution today.

Henry Sylvia, son of a county official, reported sighting the monster and his story was vonched for by fishermen and swimmers.

Fishermen said the giant devilfish had probably been driven in by high winds. Devilfish, or squid, is used for food by fawaiians and numerous big fellows were caught and taken to market during the rodgh weather.

Unless he could frighten them off, his fate was sealed! That they must pay one life for every at-tempt to take his had its effect upon the savages; and when they began a new rush they did it more skilfully, scattering into three bands.

These rushed him from different directions; and though he emptied his pistol with good effect, they reached him at last. Seeming to know his ammunition was exhausted, they circled close, evidently intending to take him alive.

SOLON URGES PLAN FOR BONUS 'SALES' WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(P)—A new idea for stilling the clamorous demand for cashing the soldiers' bonus by rermitting the ex-service men to sell their adjusted compensation certificates was proposed today by Representative Bachmann, republican, West Virginia. He introduced the bill with the suggestion that it would not only end the agitation for cash payment by the government but would put money. BASKERS TREM OF TABLES ON INSULL AFFAIRS NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(P)—Details of bankers' conferences on the affairs of Insul! Utility Investments, Inc., prior to its failure were brought out today in proceedings before Referee John E. Joyce. H. A. Mathews, vice president of the Irving Trust Company, described at length a meeting last April 8 at tended by him and other bankers and Owen D. Young, head of the General Electric Company. The possibility of failure was taken up, he said, and Young raised the point that a receivership then would reflect on three operating companies, the People's Gas Light and Coke Company, the Public Service of Northern Illinois and Commonwealth Edison Company.

He introduced the bill with the suggestion that it would not only end the agitation for cash payment by the government but would put money hack into the treasure of the suggestion.

In treatment of disabled veterans, Hines suggested preference should be given to service-connected disabilities, then cases among men of the regular establishments who have been honorably discharged in peace times.

FARMERS APPROVE DEATH OF BOARD

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 .-- (AP) --Organized farm groups approved quick extinction for the Hoover administration's farm board today and told the house agriculture committee they were without direct knowledge of President-elect Roosevelt's attitude toward the domestic allotment plan which they advocate.

Edward T. O'Neal, president of the farm bureau federation, then received permission to make a brief statement remission to make a brief statement "to clarify the situation."

"This conference of farm leaders held here this week was set last October." O'Neal said. "In conference later with other farm leaders it was felt that I. as chairman, should invite Henry Morgenthau Jr., conservation commissioner of New York state, to attend.

"He sat in, making frank statement that he was there as a witness only.
"In a number of conferences we various farm leaders have held with Governor Roosevelt he has suggested only one thing emphatically—that we farm leaders ourselves try to control our situation until these large surpluses are out of the way."

Morgenthau. a Roosevelt adviser, also has conferred frequently with Chairman Johes, of the committee, who drafted a tentative bill approximating in major respects the farm leaders' recommendations.

Charles A. Cannon, cotton manufacturer of Concord, N. C., opposed the domestic allotment plan as "un-"He sat in, making frank statement

"The cotton farmer would not re-

"The cotton farmer would not receive the 5 cents a pound you propose." Cannon testified. "He would receive but 2 cents a pound on the total production, while the consumer would pay 6 1-4 cents a pound.

"This amounts to a sales tax of from 33 1-3 to 40 per cent and will reduce consumption.

"If consumption is reduced and the amount of cotton for export thereby increased it will force down the world price and in that way hurt the proprice and in that way hurt the producer. Also, if you curtail domestic consumption you reduce employment in the cotton mills.

"I do not think the cotton farmer.

"I do not think the cotton farmer can afford the failure this bill would bring about—a lower world price."

Jones asked Cannon what he would suggest to remedy conditions.

"I am sure if we had anything to suggest a bill so unsound as this would not now be before you," Cannon replied. "What the farmer seems to need is a smaller cash outlay in taxes." need is a smaller cash outlay in taxes and mortgages."

ARGARD SENATOR RECALLS EX-CO OF COLLECTING DEBT

Coincidently, changes in war veterans' laws to effect an annual saving of approximately $345,000,000 were proposed by Frank T. Hines, veterans' administrator.

Hines recommended his program of economy and elimination of "inequalities" in existing laws to the joint congressional committee studying the entire veterans' situation with a view to revamping the nation's policy toward the disabled former service men.

The administrator proposed savings of $1,200,000,000 over a period of $3 years by limiting new hospital facilities to extension of existing institutions. This would reduce costs under the present construction policy by about $30,000,000 aver.

He also recommended a bar against rerating of cases for the purpose of reviving insurance, which he said would save another $6,000,000 annual saving would result, he said, from reducing the compensation of veterans while in soldiers' homes.

In treatment of disabled veterans, lines suggested preference should be ship for a 10-year period.
